Savage Barbarians Had

By Telegraph to Evening News.

London, July 7.—A Shanghai dispatch received here today confirms the news of the massacre of all the foreign ministers, women and children and the European guards at Peking, after a hopeless resistance of eighteen days. Washington, July 7.—A cablegram received here today from Consul Goodnow of Shanghai says that the legations were standing July 3 and that recent attacks of the boxers were not even for women and children.

KILLED IN A RUNAWAY

Artford Man Strange Victim to Slight Accident.

Mr. W. Allen, a prominent citizen of Artford and well known in Benton Harbor, was killed in a wagon tip over on Watervliet Friday afternoon. He was driving a wagon full of passengers down the large hill near the mill when the horses started and passing over a rut and tipped the wagon over. The passengers were killed in all directions and were injured more or less badly. When the accident occurred, Mr. Allen jumped to his feet and immediately after the accident with the exclamation, "Any one hurt?"

Hardly and the words left his mouth when he fell to the ground and died. The thought he had around something to do with his death.

Judge O'Brien, Clerk of the Michigan telephone company, says: "The Michigan telephone company has a net gain of $81 subscribers in making a total number of 38,628 subscribers of June 30. The net gain of 81 subscribers includes this year's net gain of 2,744 subscribers of June, making a total of 38,628 subscribers of this year."

CYCLONE TOOK A DIP.

Touched the Earth at Millburg and Berrien Springs.

Berrien Springs, July 7.—(Special)—A heavy wind storm played havoc here last night at about 9 o'clock. Trees were uprooted and blown to the ground in several places. A beautiful tree in Mrs. Mason's front yard was broken off short and dropped to the earth. The trunk of the tree was a foot in diameter. Trees in the Davis' and other yards suffered like fates. The heavy fall of rain washed large ditches in the Niles road and delayed this morning's traffic considerably. At one place the gravel on top of a water pipe washed clean away and travelers were today compelled to drive directly on top of the pipe.

Wind at Millburg.

The heavy wind last night blew a tree down about a mile west of Millburg. In falling the tree caught a telephone wire and as a consequence telephone connections with Millburg are cut off.

Lightning at Fair Plain.

Dr. A. G. Smith's house, near Spinks' summer resort, occupied by A. Wennell, was struck by lightning last night, which entered the roof running down the wall into a room occupied by two small children, which were covered with plaster and very much frightened. A small fire started but was soon put out.

COUNTY PROSECUTOR

Attorney Cady Will Abide by Decision of City Caucuses.

Attorney A. P. Cady, one of the Benton Harbor candidates for prosecuting attorney, has wisely decided to allow the result of the republican caucuses in this city next Tuesday evening to determine his candidacy. He believes that Benton Harbor should go into the convention united and if he cannot capture a majority of his own delegation he will quit the race. Mr. Cady enjoys a good legal practice and is well equipped for the office of prosecuting attorney. He was born in Ottawa county, Michigan, in 1865, and worked his way through school earning money during vacations by civil engineering. He attended a preparatory school at Mt. Hermon, Mass., and graduated from Olivet college in 1890, and from the Michigan university law department in 1894. He located in Benton Harbor immediately after graduation.

A TESTIMONIAL.

Universalist Ladies Like Mr. Baker of Powhatan Fame.

The ladies of the Universalist church wish to acknowledge the superior work of William A. Baker as director in the beautiful opera, Powhatan. He has shown himself a gentleman in every particular and it has been a privilege for our young people to get the drill, discipline and instruction from one so capable. Mr. Baker has won the kindly regard of all who have met him. The executive board of the ladies' aid of the Universalist church met this morning at the home of the president, Mrs. Thomas Rector, and after making a very satisfactory settlement with William A. Baker, instructor in Powhatan, the ladies found their treasury replenished to the amount of $105.00. The ladies wish here to express their hearty thanks to the many young people who assisted in the opera and their parents for their interest and cooperation which made the entertainment the great success it was.

RUNDOWN BY A WHEEL

Accident Which Seriously Injured
Mrs. J. A. Nichols, High Street.

THE RIDER WAS NOT RECKLESS.

The Victim Ran Across the Street to Assist in Exciting Runaway.

Mrs. J. A. Nichols, 103 High street and Harry B. Kidd's bicycle came in collision on Pipestone street, opposite Hannon & Vincent's livery barn, last evening at about 8 o'clock. Miss Hannon and her grandfather, Samuel Hannon, were out for a horse-back ride and the young lady was mounted on the racing pony. In turning about at the end of the pavement Miss Hannon spoke to the pony to go and the latter thought he was in for a race and he went. The young lady was badly frightened but could not make the pony slacken the pace. She clung fast and the pony ran to the livery barn full speed.

Mrs. Nichols was on her way home and saw the excitement and started to run across the street in order to give assistance. Harry B. Kidd was coming down the street on his wheel at the same time and a collision was the result.

Mrs. Nichols, who is a woman of 60, was knocked down and sustained a severe bruise about the head, also about one hip. She was carried into Rice's store and Dr. Herring was called and cared for her. She was dazed by the accident but in a short time was able to be taken home. Unless there are internal injuries she will soon be entirely recovered.

Mr. Kidd was riding at the ordinary rate of speed and is much grieved over the accident. Like Mrs. Nichols he had his eyes fastened on the young lady who was expected by all who saw her wild ride to be hurled to the pavement with fatal result.

Dr. Herring says that Mrs. Nichols shows no signs of serious injuries today. Mr. Kidd sent a carriage for Mrs. Nichols' husband who was working near L L gap and is furnishing the services of the physician.

Endorse Wallace's Circus.

The Wallace circus exhibited at Hannibal, Mo., and this is what the Daily Journal of that city said of it:

"Some years ago a bald headed member of the Missouri legislature from the southeastern section of the state introduced a bill to compel circuses to 'show everything advertised'."

"This honest statesman evidently did not have Wallace's circus in mind when he prepared his bill, judging from the great entertainment given by that great combination in this city yesterday."

"The promises on the big, flaming bills were great, but every promise was fulfilled and more."

"The parade, to start with, astonished everybody. It was immense. And then the menagerie was complete and there was no 'kick coming' from ticket holders."

"The big show came fully up to expectation. To particularize would require a page. Every act was applauded. The Journal's advice is, when you get within reach of Wallace's circus, go and get your money's worth."

The Great Wallace Shows will exhibit in Benton Harbor on Thursday, July 12.

New Road Causes Boom.

Dowagiac News: The new Toledo and Benton Harbor railroad has caused a boom at Corey, new cottages having been built, hotels remodeled and old cottages repaired with the idea that the railroad was surely going to strike them. To do this the road would have to make quite a turn from Dowagiac and would probably go through Jimtown.

IN THREE HOURS.

With New Propeller Wheel Steamer
Mary Will Cross Lake.

The new steamer Mary of the Graham & Morton line proved herself a good sea boat yesterday.

She left Chicago with 100 passengers aboard and encountered the two heavy gales withstanding them in fine shape and made the run in a little less than five hours.

President Graham said this morning that of all the boats owned by the company the Mary was the best sea boat. He further stated that since the heavy iron fins had been removed she made better time by at least one hour in crossing the lake.

The one great fault in the propeller wheel of the boat which was made by a Milwaukee firm, Mr. Graham has ordered a new wheel from a Buffalo firm, the same people who manufactured the wheels for her when she was first built. And when the new wheel is placed in position the products that the Mary will cross the lake in three hours.

The affair was not reported to the police authorities.

RUSSIA TO CONSENT.

Willing That Japan Shall Act Freely in China.

MORE ABOUT HORRORS IN PEKING.

The City Said to Be Reeking with Carnage—Reports of Slaughter of Legation Forces Are Accepted as True.

London, July 7.—The Russian government announces that it will give Japan a free hand to apply military force in China. The terms of this consent are summarized in a dispatch from St. Petersburg, under date of July 6. In reply to an inquiry from the Japanese cabinet, regarding the dispatch of Japanese troops to China to render aid to the foreigners in Peking, the Russian government declared on May 27, that it left the Japanese government full liberty of action in this connection, and the Tokio cabinet has expressed its readiness to act in full agreement with other powers.

It is in consequence of this, no doubt, that Japan is preparing to embark 20,000 more troops. Political considerations that were thought to have been numbing the action of the powers are thus laid aside, for a moment at least, by the government supposed to have the clearest purposes respecting China's future. Japan's sending of troops now can have little bearing on the fate of the foreigners in Peking.

Details of further horrors in Peking magistrates. It orders them to detect, behead and otherwise severely punish Boxers. These officials, the proclamation says, will be held responsible for the safety of the missionaries and native Christians. The governors of two quongs join in this proclamation. Another proclamation issued by Li Hung Chang directs that persons starting any uprising shall at once be beheaded and that those spreading false rumors shall be severely punished. This latter phrase, in a Chinese sense, means slow strangulation by means of a wooden collar. Wholesale executions are expected to follow these proclamations.

Mob Kills 5,000.

London, July 7.—To the massacre of whites at Peking is added the horrors that savage soldiery butchered at the capital 5,000 natives, Roman Catholic converts. This comes in a Shanghai dispatch of July 5, which only adds to the reports given by respectable Chinese who have arrived from Chian-Fu, and who describe Peking as an inferno, the streets literally running with blood.

Offers a Big Reward.

Berlin, July 7.—Emperor William has telegraphed to the commander of the German squadron in Chinese waters, to the governor general of Shan Tung, to the viceroys and to others, offering a thousand taels to anyone accomplishing the deliverance of any foreigner of any nationality whatever now shut up in Peking who is handed over to any German magistrate, and offering to pay the expenses of the publication of this offer in Peking.

From Emperor to President.

Canton, O., July 7.—The following cablegram was received by President McKinley Friday:

ADLAI E. STEVENSON.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR VICE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

are gathered by correspondents at Shanghai from Chinese sources, especially of the slaughter in the Chinese and Tartar city of thousands of native Christians. The capital reeks with carnage. The ruthless thirst for blood is spreading in all the northern provinces, and wherever there are native Christians the scenes enacted in the capital are reproduced in miniature. From these provinces nothing further comes regarding the legation forces except a repetition that they are all dead. The correspondents aver that if the Chinese officials in Shanghai wished to throw light on the real state of affairs in the capital they could do so and, therefore, the worst reports are accepted as true.

Prince Tuan's coup d'etat is described by the Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Mail as a sequence to the grand council of ministers at which Yung Yu advocated the suppression of the Boxers promptly. The dowager empress gave her whole support to Yung Yu, and a scene of disorder ensued. Prince Tuan passionately intervened, backed by Kang Yih. They rushed from the council, and their partisans raised the cry "Down with the foreigners." The effect was electrical. The eunuchs, palace officials of all sorts and most of the populace took up the cause of Prince Tuan, and his agents immediately put the emperor and the dowager empress under restraint.

Disaster to Russians.

The Chefoo correspondent of the Express, telegraphing on Thursday, says there is no longer any doubt that disaster has overtaken the Russian force of 3,000 that left Tientsin for Peking on June 11. The Russians had a full field gun complement, and carried their own transports. As nothing has been heard from them for 24 days it is assumed that they have been overwhelmed. Trustworthy news is received to the effect that all the country to the northeast of Peking is covered with the corpses of men and horses of the western garrisons. Fighting of a desperate character took place in the immediate neighborhood of Tientsin on June 30.

Taku dispatches say an attack in great force is expected at any moment. The Chinese commanders are awaiting the arrival of more guns and reinforcements before making an effort to retake the city.

Ordered to Punish Boxers.

According to the Daily Telegraph's correspondent, in a dispatch dated Thursday, United States Consul McWade has great influence with Li Hung Chang, and has persuaded him to issue a proclamation containing detailed instructions to prefects, subprefects and Rendezburg, July 7.—To the President of the United States, William McKinley: For your excellency's warm words of condolence in the murder of my representative in Peking, I express my most sincere thanks. I recognize therein the common impulse of interests which binds the civilized nations together.

"WILLIAM, Emperor."

TRADE REVIEW.

Leading Commercial Agencies Tell of Existing Conditions in Commercial Circles.

New York, July 7.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "Failures in the first half of 1900 were 5,302, with liabilities of $100,570,134. There were 30 failures of banks and financial corporations for $25,822,682, leaving 5,272 commercial failures with liabilities of $74,747,457. Had it been predicted that the vast iron industry would be thrown from unprecedented activity into great depression, with many works closed and prices reduced fully a quarter, without failures amounting in all to $30,000, it would have been thought impossible. Yet the six failures in the department for the last quarter were in all $28,355, though Bessemer pig has fallen from $25 to $18, and plates from 3.1 to 1.5 cents, and the average for iron and steel products has declined just 25 per cent. since January 10. Some further decline is now expected before things are adjusted for another active season, and efforts to arrange wages are progressing.

Bradstreet's says: "Business is usually dull at this season, and this year no exception to the general rule is remarked. A review of the past six months, however, gives little comfort to pessimists. Bank clearings, it is true, are smaller by about 11 per cent. than they were in the first half of 1899, but railway earnings are about 10 per cent. larger, and business failures, as reported to Bradstreet's, are the fewest reported for 18 years back, with liabilities of failing traders the smallest, with one exception, and that last year, since 1892. Winter wheat has about all been harvested in the southwest and the yield there has been very large. Copious rains in the northwest, too, have apparently worked some improvement, judging from the more cheerful tone of advices received thence this week.

"In manufacturing lines dullness and weakness are most marked in products of iron and steel. Talk of an effort by the great combinations to control prices in the latter industry is heard, but in the almost total lack of new business the basic material, pig iron, weakens steadily, with some authorities predicting 25 per cent. reduction from present purely nominal prices, which are not attracting buyers. The situation, in boots and shoes and its allied industries is one of quiet, pending new developments. The settlement of labor troubles is reflected in the better demand for building materials at affected centers, while rains in the northwest have allowed white pine manufacturers to open their works and give employment to many thousands of men. Southern pine prices are weak and the market for that material is very dull."

REAL CYCLONE CLOUD

It Passed High Over Benton Harbor at 9 O'clock Last Evening.

NO DAMAGE YET REPORTED.

It Was a Slight That Tailled With the Description of Western Storms.

At 9 o'clock last evening just as the heavy wind and rain storm fell upon Benton Harbor many people were terrified who were out of doors watching the progress of the storm.

High in the sky over the southern part of the city was a black funnel-shaped cloud and it moved along in an easterly direction at a rapid rate of speed. The point of the funnel was toward the earth and the tail had the appearance of being several hundred feet in width. The cloud had a weird look but it seemed to break in the sky and to the people who were watching it it seemed that its fury was spent before reaching the earth.

No word has been received of any damage from the storm cloud.

It is rumored that Hon. Hanson D. Smith, of Cassopolis, may be appointed by Governor Pinckney a member of the state pension board. Mr. Smith is a conscientious and able official in what position he assumes, and his selection would be a benefit to the board and state.

The village of Allegan is in trouble over alleged shortages in its water commissioner's office. This is said to have been going on through several administrations, and shows the careless manner in which city officials examine the books of those who handle city money. This city has never had scandals of this kind, and the above example may be an incentive to continued vigilance.

LOCALITY NOTHING.

The next political event of local interest will be the republican county convention to be held at St. Joseph, July 18.

In ordinary years, and there is nothing to predict that 1900 is an extraordinary year except the new spots on the sun and they cannot vote, a republican nomination in this county is the equivalent to an election. Interest therefore centers on the work of the republican convention.

Poor county officers make high taxes. Poor officers bring reproach upon a county. These facts seem lost sight of in the scramble for office. All the qualifications, judging from the political arguments advanced, needed by an aspirant for a county office is the fact that the party is indebted to him or that his nomination will make room for the hungry from some other city or township the next time.

The most competent and the best men regardless of locality should be nominated for the various offices and an incompetent should not be put on the ticket even if his voting precinct has not been represented on the ticket for a hundred years. Qualification ought to count for more than the mere fact that the candidate lives at neglected Twelve Corners or New Troy.

THE Detroit Tribune makes the claim that Adlai Stevenson is the first man to be nominated for vice president a second time.

FROM the comments of the democratic papers one would imagine that the fourth district democratic convention will not Roosevelt the Hon R. I. Jarrys.

News Notes About the Bustling Lake Town

Gasoline Explosion Did Great Damage Today.

Two gasoline stoves and a five gallon can of the liquid were responsible for a $200 fire in the boarding house on Main street kept by Mrs. A. Granger.

Near 11 o'clock this morning Mrs. Granger was preparing dinner in her kitchen. She owns two gasoline stoves and was about to use the other exploded. Quickly slinging an old coat over the blaze she as quickly removed it when she noticed the garment had caught fire.

She then in her excitement threw the coat on top of a gallon can of gasoline standing near. The gasoline exploded and the flames spread to the kitchen floor.

The alarm was immediately turned on and the fire team arrived in time to prevent the destruction of the house. The loss is fully $200. No insurance.

Mrs. Granger is a poor woman and is in despair over her loss.

James O'Hara left this morning for Atlanta, Ga., as the local delegate to the Masonic convention in that city.

Will Hosblien slipped from the G. & M. dock last evening and took a cold plunge in the river. He was rescued by bystanders.

Miss Stella Davis will teach the Gard school near this place next winter. Miss Davis was graduated from the local high school last May.

Special Census Enumerator H. W. Davis has completed his statistical canvass of the twin cities. He reports the industries of the two cities in a very healthy condition.

The contempt case against Harry Haskin of Royalton in the divorce matter has been settled, Haskin agreeing to pay the temporary alimony without further delay.

Billy LePole, a well known character of this city, was arrested this afternoon for robbing the pockets of a half drunken man asleep on one of the park benches. His hearing is on this afternoon in justice court.

Payge, the colored bootblack who stabbed Hobo Ryan Thursday night, was taken from the city to the county jail this morning. He will remain in the latter place until July 16, when his trial is billed to come off before Justice St. Clair. James O'Hara is Payne's attorney.

A German citizen of Benton Harbor was riding a bicycle without a light on Main street last evening. He accidentally ran into a person and was charged to find the person no other than Chief of Police Morton. The German was arrested and fined the usual $4.95.

The Ricaby assignment matter came up before Judge Coolidge at Niles yesterday. Attorney Frank Bracelin represented the assignee, A. L. Church, Attorney Charles W. Stratton and John C. St. Clair representing certain creditors, appear in opposition. The entire discussion rested on a petition for allowance. The judge substantially granted the petition of assignee and allowed a number of expenses.

When Chief Morton chased the hobos out of St. Joseph he gave them warning not to return to the resort city. He threatened 60 days in jail to those who disobeyed his orders in that regard. Today the chief ran across a returned hobo on the street and within half an hour the tramp was fairly launched on his 60 day term in the county jail. The hobo received his sentence with these words: "The chief, sir, is a man of his word."

KITCHENER CRAVES SUCCESS.

British General Subordinates Everything Else to the One Object of His Life.

Father Brindle, D. S. O., bishop auxiliary to Cardinal Vaughan, recently delivered a lecture at Eastbourne, England, in which he devoted some time to personal reminiscences of Lord Kitchener, the English general now in South Africa. Father Brindle has known Kitchener for 18 years.

"I have always known him," he said, "as a man with a purpose—a man who was bound to make his mark. I knew him when he was only a captain, at the time of the earlier Sudan campaigns, when he so frequently went out into the desert to make observations and to bring back most valuable information to his superiors. In 1896 I was enabled to view the perfection of his organization. He has made it a rule of his life never to raise his foot without knowing where he is going to place it. He is thought to be a hard man; I do not believe him to be hard. But he is certainly a man who wears a mask."

"Lord Kitchener has set one object before him in life, and that is, to be successful. He has subordinated every other feeling of his nature to that one thought of success. He looks upon men as tools, which, if they are not fit for the work for which they are required, must be replaced. The result is that he always secures the best men. These men, moreover, never lack their reward. For the men who served under him in the Sudan yesterday are the men who are serving under him in South Africa to-day."

Cotton.
 Consul Wildman, writing from Hong-Kong, China, says: "If properly placed before the Chinese, American cotton goods will obtain the same foothold in southern China that they have in northern. The present importations are not nearly sufficient to meet the requirements. It must be borne in mind that the Chinese never wear wool—not even in the depth of winter; that, generally speaking, the entire population clothe themselves in cotton all the year round. Their bedclothes, umbrellas, and, in a few instances, boat sails are made of cotton, and the consumption is practically unlimited if they are made in accordance with native requirements. The cloths should be a strong, coarse, unbleached cloth, 22 inches wide, retailable at about five cents a yard, or 36 cents gold per piece of nine yards. There is also a virgin market for a cotton cloth which, tanned or otherwise treated, would prove rainproof. All cotton goods would have to be put up in lengths to suit the peculiar requirements of the trade for which they are designed, and such details could best be learned after having made a trial shipment. As I have pointed out before, it is impossible to do business with Chinese by correspondence, and the most that a consul can do is to supply a hint."

POLICE CAPTAIN CONFOUNDED.

Stray Child at the Station Has a Pat Answer for the Officer's Query.

Capt. Hayes, who is stationed at the Thirty-fifth street police station, will question lost children with caution in the future. Effie Armstrong, four years old, whose parents live in Stewart avenue, wandered from home and became lost. An officer found her playing in the sand and brought her to the captain's office, says a Chicago paper.

"What is your name?" the captain asked.

She told him, and though there were several officers around she showed no signs of embarrassment. Not only did she tell her name, but she began talking about other persons she knew. She didn't know where she lived, though, but as Officer Armstrong lives in the Thirty-fifth street district the captain thought he had a clew.

"Is your father a policeman?" he asked.

"No," my father isn't a policeman," she said. "He works."

Capt. Hayes made no further effort to learn the identity of the child, but an hour later the mother of the little one came to the station and found Effie playing house back of the sergeant's desk.

Playing Before the Sultan.

In an account of how he played before the sultan and his harem at Constantinople (the ladies were at the end of the room behind a gold grating), Franz Ondrick, the well-known violinist, relates in the New York Tribune that he had to submit to the same test as other performers that have appeared at Lidliz Kiosk, and play at sight any piece selected by the sultan. In this case it was an absurdly easy arrangement of airs from "La Sonnambula," which M. Ondrick proceeded to render in the most serious manner, to the delight of his majesty. When, on one occasion, the famous Wilhelmj was invited to submit to the same test, he incurred much displeasure by refusing to play "anything so childish."

One of the Emperor's Fads.

Among the many fads of Emperor William is his passion for collecting boots and shoes of famous people, his collection of these particular objects of attire constituting a fitting pendant to his huge museum of uniforms. The collection is kept in the marble palace at Potsdam, and there are some 2,000 pairs, from Greek sandals and a pair of slippers reputed to have belonged to Mahomet to the boots of Wallenstein, of Gustavus Adolphus, of Peter the Great, of Frederick the Great, and lastly, of the first Napoleon.

and the streets adjacent were literally packed with humanity when the governor alighted from his carriage and walked briskly toward the house. Then a tremendous cheer burst forth from the assembled multitude. President McKinley was standing on the porch waiting with outstretched hands to greet his associate on the national ticket. When they shook hands the scene was inspiring indeed. The assemblage was clamorous for speeches, and when something like quiet was restored the president introduced Gov. Roosevelt, who spoke briefly, expressing his thanks for the reception accorded him. At dinner the only guests at the McKinley residence besides the regular household were Gov. Roosevelt

London, July 7.—Gen. Paget is moving toward the heart of the country held by DeWet. Lord Roberts telegraphed to the war office, under date of Pretoria, as follows:

"Paget engaged the enemy on July 3 successfully at Fielesfontein. He drove them out of a strong position across the Lekooek to Bronckhorstpoort, and bivouacked for the night. He followed up the enemy and on the afternoon of July 4 was at Blaauwkoppe, 15 miles north-west of Bethelhem. He reports that all of Steyn's government officials, except the treasurer general, who has gone to Vrede, are at Bethelhem, which has been proclaimed the capital. Steyn himself is reported to have taken flight to the mountains. Buller reports that the J. to Heidelberg restored, thus completely restoring communication between Pretoria and Natal."

The Times' Lourenzo Marques correspondent, in a dispatch dated Friday says: "From a trustworthy source it is learned that ex-President Steyn and Christian DeWet are the only obstacles to the termination of the war in South Africa."

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman's Crowning Virtue.

Belton, Mo., July 27.
For years I suffered terrible pains every month and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I felt I could not submit to that and was so despondent I had given up all hopes of a cure. My husband insisted on my trying Wine of Cardui and at last thank God I did try it. Last month I did not have a pain, and did all my work, which I had not done in seven years.

MRS. MINNIE LITTLE

WINE OF CARDUI

Modesty is the crowning virtue of American women. It is the trait that all mankind admires. A modest woman is the most pleasing of all created things. Because of this becoming virtue thousands of women prefer to suffer untold miseries rather than confide their troubles to a physician, and to even think of submitting to an examination is revolting. They can't get their own consent to an operation. Wine of Cardui permits sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure "female troubles" in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chattanooga Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of womanly weaknesses and irregularities. There should be no hesitation. Delayed treatment means a chronic condition. The longer postponed the harder to cure.

Wisconsin, in which a governor and state officers will be elected.

The states in which there will be no general election for state officers this year are Maryland, Mississippi, Nevada, New Jersey and Virginia. The states which have already held their state elections are Rhode Island, which chose a governor and state officers in April; Louisiana, which holds its state election in the same month, and Oregon, which voted in June.

The states which are to hold elections this year in advance of the November contest for presidential electors are Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Maine and Vermont.

DRESSMAKER REMEMBERED.

Emma Eames, the American Prima Donna, Sent an Old Friend Tickets to the Opera.

Those in Chicago who have known Emma Eames, the prima donna, from childhood will not doubt the story that is being told illustrative of her thoughtfulness and kindness of heart, says the Chicago Chronicle. It was after Mme. Eames had become famous and a well-known picture of her by her husband was on exhibition in Boston that it came out. The woman who knew Emma Eames had gone down to see the picture and as she stood before it she noticed beside her a plain, little old woman, wearing a circular and carrying an old-fashioned reticule. The two fraternized and the little woman with the reticule told the other the story.

It was before Emma Eames became famous, before she had gone abroad or sung in grand opera, that the little woman was her dressmaker. Then came the time when the ambitious young singer started for the other side, looking for fame and fortune. Before she left she said to the little dressmaker:

"If I get to be a great singer while I am gone, Mary, when I come back to sing here you will be the first person to whom I shall send tickets."

"And when she came back she was a great singer," said Mary, telling the story, "and the first thing she did when she reached here was to send me tickets."

WAS IN A HURRY.

Big Elephant at the Philadelphia Exposition Got Hungry and Let the Cook Know It.

There was a big elephant at the Philadelphia Export exposition with an instinct that approached very closely to human understanding. He was one of the most patient of animals, but when hungry he demanded attention in the most imperative way, says an exchange of that city.

While quarters were being prepared for him, the elephant was tied to a post in the rear of a restaurant. The smell from the kitchen was very appetizing to a hungry pachyderm, and one day a gentle tap came on the kitchen window. The chef paid no attention and in a few minutes the tap was repeated, louder than before. This summons also passed unnoticed, but the next one that came could not be misunderstood. The end of the kitchen was built of thin boards, and the first thing the cook knew his pots and pans were flying about the kitchen. The angry elephant was flailing the thin partition with tremendous blows. The frightened cook fairly flew out of the back door with a dish of apples and other edibles so highly prized by elephants, and there was no further summons that day.

Pacific Air Is the Best.

Studies of the zodiacal light made at sea lead F. J. Baylson, formerly of the British navy, to remark that the air over the Pacific ocean appears clearer and better adapted for celestial observation than that lying over the Atlantic ocean. Honolulu is admirably situated for clearness of air, and it may become an important outpost in astronomy. It has already been selected as one of the chief points for the study of the vibrations of the earth.

When Children Dream.

According to the recent studies of Sig. De Sanctis of Turin, children begin to dream before their fourth year, but are unable to recall dreams before the age of five. This age, he concludes, is that at which a child first becomes instinctively conscious of self. Aged people dream less frequently and less vividly than the young. Women's dreams are more frequent, more vivid and better remembered than those of men.

RELIC OF LIVINGSTONE.

Section of the Tree Under Which His Heart Was Buried in Africa Carried to England.

In that portion of South Africa which is now called Rhodesia, at the small settlement of Chitambo, just south of Lake Bangweolo, Dr. Livingstone, the famous African explorer and missionary, gave up his life on May 1, 1873.

The Royal Geographical society has just received a remarkable relic of Dr. Livingstone in the shape of a section of tree trunk. When the great explorer died there was intense grief among those natives to whom he had endeared himself. They opened the body, removed the heart and placed it in a tin box, which they buried under a large tree. Around this they erected a fence.

An inscription was cut on the tree by order of one of Dr. Livingstone's men, while the Royal Geographical society sent subsidies to the native chiefs of the district in order to preserve the sanctity of the spot.

LIVINGSTONE RELIC.
(Section of the Tree Under Which His Heart Was Buried.)

Livingstone's body was roughly embalmed, sent to England and buried in Westminster Abbey, but for more than 20 years no white man visited the site of the tree under which his heart had been placed.

Reports were some time ago received that the tree was decaying, and Mr. Alfred Sharpe, C. B., the commissioner to the British Central Africa protectorate, recommended its felling in order to preserve what remained of the inscription.

This was done, the section containing the inscription being carefully cut out and forwarded to England, where it is to be added to the relic section of the Royal Geographical society.

The inscription has become almost obliterated. The bark, which had been cut away from the trunk, has regrown in places and has covered some of the letters. All that now remains is: "Dr. Livingstone. May 4, 1873. . . . Za Mnasere Uchopere."

is a newspaper for bright and intelligent people. It is made up to attract people who think. It is not neutral or colorless, constantly trimming in an endeavor to please both sides, but it is independent in the best sense of the word. It has pronounced opinions and is fearless in expressing them, but it is always fair to its opponents.

Matters of national or vital public interest get more space in THE TRIBUNE than in any other paper in the West.

For these reasons it is the newspaper you should read during the forthcoming political campaign.

THE TRIBUNE'S financial columns never mislead the public.

Its facilities for gathering news, both local and foreign, are far superior to those of any other newspaper in the West.

It presents the news in as fair a way as possible, and lets its readers form their own opinions. While it publishes the most comprehensive articles on all news features, if you are busy the "Summary of THE DAILY TRIBUNE" published daily on the first page gives you briefly all the news of the day within one column.

Its sporting news is always the best, and its Sunday Pink Sporting Section is better than any sporting paper in the country.

TICKET COMPLETE

Democrats Name Stevenson, of Illinois, for the Vice Presidency.

The Result Is Reached on the First Ballot After Some Remarkable Scenes.

New York Presents Hill's Name and Wild Enthusiasm Possesses the Convention.

The Ex-Senator Makes a Speech Pleading That He Be Not Nominated for the Place.

The Ticket Is Endorsed by the Silver Republicans—Populists Undecided as to Stevenson.

Kansas City, July 8.—The democratic national ticket was completed Friday by the nomination of Adlai E. Stevenson for vice president. The nomination was made on the first ballot, state after state joining in the wild scramble to record their support of the winning candidate. It was not accompanied by any such frantic demonstration of approval as had marked the proceedings at previous stages, although the result followed a spirited and at times highly dramatic contest between the advocates of Stevenson, Towne, Hill and the lesser candidates.

Ovation to Hill. The distinct triumph of the day in the way of a popular ovation was that accorded to Senator Hill, and in its spontaneity and enthusiasm, was one of the most notable features the convention had produced. It was accompanied too by a remarkable scene when Hill earnestly protested to his friends against being placed in nomination, and then, finding his protest in vain, when he strode to the platform, and in tones which left no doubt of their sincerity, earnestly begged the convention not to make him the nominee.

Stevenson and Towne Named. At 10:45 Chairman Richardson advanced to the front of the platform, a great bouquet of sweet peas in his hand, and with a sweep of the gavel cut off the strains of the band, slowly stilled the confusion and brought the convention to order for its third day's work. After the prayer the call of states began for the purpose of making nominations for the vice presidency. Great confusion prevailed and very few of the delegates were aware of what was going on until Alabama and Arkansas had been passed, and California was called. Then the doughty form and florid face of Senator White emerged from the Californians, and in stentorian tones he demanded to know what was going on and that the allies be cleared of the disorderly intruders. When the chairman responded that California was being called for nominations, Senator White announced that California yielded to Arkansas. "And Arkansas yields to Illinois," he shouted. "I shout for Davis, the democratic candidate for governor of Arkansas, standing on a chair and receiving a cheer for his mention of Stevenson."

Now all business was suspended, as the confusion had become so overpowering that the call of the secretaries was inaudible above the roar. The police and sergeants-at-arms struggled vainly to dispossess the mob which was now well-nigh in control of the floor. Men fought to retain their places, and there were many cutting encounters, which at times threatened to precipitate a fight under the eyes of the multitude. It took 15 minutes to restore some semblance of order, and then the spokesman for Illinois, Representative James Williams, presented the name of Stevenson. Stevenson's name was received with cheers. Connecticut yielded to Minnesota and Mr. Roesing nominated Towne. There was considerable cheering for Towne among the spectators, but Minnesota was the only state that joined in the demonstration save one delegate here and there. The cheering was kept up for a little while, but it was evident that Towne's friends were in the galleries.

Spring Hill's Name. Meantime attention was being directed to an excited group, massed in front of the New York section with Hill as the vortex of a struggling throng of delegates. They pressed forward from all quarters of the hall, urging him to present his name to the convention before the delegates. The face of the New Yorker was a study as the demands upon him came from all sides. He sat in the front row of delegates, with ex-Senator Murphy on his right and Judge Van Wyck on his immediate left. A second seat away was Mr. Croker. Hill protested vociferously. Judge Van Wyck said he could not refuse. Murphy and Croker pleaded with him to obey the will of the convention and accept. While the pleadings continued the call of Delaware was heard above the roar, and Delaware yielded her place to New York. At this the bulky form of Senator Grady, the silver-bulky form of Senator Grady, the silver-bulky form of Senator Grady, pushed through the densely-packed aisles up to the platform. There was a hush through the hall to hear what word New York had to offer. "In behalf of the united democracy of New York," shouted Grady, "I present as a candidate for vice president the name of David Bennett Hill."

A Great Scene. The effect was electrical and a tidal wave of enthusiastic approval swept over the convention. Delegates stood on their feet, waving frantically, not in a few scattering groups, but in solid phalanxes. Flags and standards were again mingled in triumphant procession while a roar from Niagara pulsed through the great structure. Grady stood there proudly waiting for the storm to subside. But as he waited the audience observed a strange pantomime. They saw Hill leave the New York delegation and push through the throng up to the platform. They could hear him appeal to Grady to withdraw, while Grady's answer was apparent from the shake of his head and his advance to the front of the platform to continue his nominating speech. When the door to the hall had subsided Grady completed his speech placing Hill before the convention. Hill Protests. But as he stepped from the platform the man who had just been placed in nomination took his place. The senator looked out sternly, even savagely, on the shouting thousands. When he could be heard he made due acknowledgment of the honor done him. "But I cannot, I must not, be the nominee of this convention," he declared, with explosive emphasis. He was frequently interrupted with enthusiastic shouts of approval, but when he left the platform the delegates were firmly convinced from his words and manner that he was sincerely desirous of having his name withheld. It is probably this alone which prevented a nomination by acclamation then and there, for the tempestuous spirit manifested showed that the convention was on the point of being carried off its feet.

Bryan Opposes Hill. When Hill's name was sprung Mr. Bryan was heard from and he made a vigorous protest to some of the leaders. He favored Towne.

Stevenson Stock Rises. It was soon apparent that, with Hill out, Stevenson was a strong favorite. State after state seemed to be coming along Georgia, Indiana, Virginia, Iowa, Kentucky, Illinois. Some of the devoted friends of Hill still maintained their allegiance to him, and the delegations of New Jersey, Louisiana and some others seconded his nomination.

Other Names Presented. A number of favorite sons also were placed in nomination, Maryland bringing forward Gov. John Walter Smith; Washington naming James Hamilton Lewis; North Carolina nominating Col. Julian Carr, and Ohio presenting the name of A. W. Patrick. It was after two o'clock when the seconding speeches, many of them wearisome, were concluded and the balloting began. As the roll was about to be called Mr. Lewis appeared on the platform and in a few well-chosen words withdrew from the contest.

The Balloting. The vote was followed with intense interest, for when Alabama announced three for Stevenson and 19 for Hill it looked as though a close and exciting contest was to occur. But it was soon evident that Stevenson had a strong lead. At the close of the call he had 69 1/2 votes, which, however, was not enough to nominate, the requisite two-thirds being 64. Hill had received 200 votes and Towne 89. But before the announcement of the result a strong-lunged delegate from Tennessee stood on his chair and announced, "Stevenson changes her 24 votes from Hill to Stevenson."

Stevenson Nominated. That started the tide irresistibly toward Stevenson. From every quarter of the hall came demands for recognition. Alabama changed its vote; California did the same. North Carolina changed from Carr to Stevenson. Even New York thins and reluctantly announced its change from Hill to Stevenson. That ended it. Stevenson's nomination was assured, although for some time longer the various states continued to record their changes from Towne and other candidates to Stevenson. In the end the nomination was made by acclamation. Its announcement was greeted with enthusiastic approval, and again the state standards and banners were borne about the building in tribute to the party nominee. The usual formal resolutions of thanks to Kansas City and to the officers of the convention were adopted amid the greatest confusion and then, at 3:21, on motion of Chairman Jones, the national democratic convention of 1900 adjourned.

THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE. Senator Jones Unanimously Re-elected Chairman.

Kansas City, July 7.—The national committee of the democratic party met at the Kansas City club after the adjournment of the convention, and immediately organized. Senator Jones, who was not a member of the committee, remained outside until the preliminaries were over. Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, who had been mentioned as a possible chairman, nominated Senator Jones for reelection, and he received the unanimous vote. The matter of selecting the executive committee was left to Chairman Jones, who will make the appointments after he has had time for consideration. It is understood that many of the members of the last committee will be chosen. A committee consisting of Tillman, of South Carolina; Johnson, of Indiana; Williams, of Massachusetts; Osborne, of Wyoming; and Wilson, of Idaho, was appointed to confer with representatives of the populist and silver republican parties as to the best plan of campaign.

SILVER REPUBLICANS. Nominate Bryan for President by Acclamation—Their Platform.

Kansas City, Mo., July 7.—After a long and exciting debate, during which it looked several times as if Charles A. Towne would be nominated for vice president in spite of his protest against such action, the national convention of the silver republican party adjourned sine die without making a nomination, the whole matter being referred to the national committee with power to act. W. J. Bryan was made the unanimous choice of the convention for president during the morning session, and it was the intention to complete the ticket in the afternoon by the nomination of former Congressman Towne. The action of the democratic convention, however, in placing Adlai E. Stevenson in nomination took the delegates off their feet, but most of them asserted their determination to nominate Towne notwithstanding. For two hours Senator Teller, former Congressman Shafroth, of Colorado, and Cheadle, of Indiana, and others made speeches in favor of endorsing the democratic ticket, but it was not until Towne himself appeared and appealed to the convention not to nominate him, but to concentrate their forces, that the delegates calmed down, and the vice presidential nomination was referred to the national committee.

Mr. Towne, in a speech to the convention previous to the decision with reference to the vice presidential nomination, said he believed it his duty to support the ticket nominated by the democratic convention. While Mr. Towne was speaking several attempts were made to interrupt him with questions. The convention howled down the attempts until Mr. Towne yielded to the questions, after which Mr. Towne again insisted that it was his wish that the convention should not nominate him. The convention in giving Mr. Towne most respectful consideration, and after a while speaking it was evident that the convention was disposed to follow Mr. Towne's advice and wishes.

The conference of the representatives of the three great parties developed a peculiar situation in some respects. The democrats were anxious for the withdrawal of Towne from the populist ticket, and the silver republicans said that as far as they were concerned, they would, through their committee, nominate Stevenson for vice president, although profoundly disappointed that Towne was not nominated by the democratic convention. The populists were not in favor of the withdrawal of Towne and maintained that the populist national committee, acting under instructions from the Sioux Falls convention, would be compelled to put another candidate in the field if Towne should withdraw, and that the committee could not withdraw him. More than this, they asserted that if Towne should be withdrawn and they should not put another man in his place, their organization would be endangered, and such action would result in populist going over to the middle-of-the-road ticket, nominated at Cincinnati. This would lessen the chances of carrying states in the west and intermountain country. The fact that a number of United States senatorships depended upon the success of the fusion of all forces was given as a reason why the populist ticket should be kept in the field. It was claimed by the populists that senators in Nebraska, one in South Dakota, one in Kansas, one in Colorado and, possibly, one in Wyoming, depended upon perfect fusion of the three forces. The populists made a plea for delay, saying that W.

Endorses Stevenson. A meeting of the silver republican national committee was held immediately after the close of the conference, and, at the end of a brief discussion, it was voted, unanimously, to place Adlai E. Stevenson in nomination for president and to cooperate in every way with the democratic party for the success of the ticket. The populist committee has reached no decision.

Platform of Silver Republicans. Kansas City, Mo., July 7.—Following is a synopsis of the platform adopted by the national silver republican convention: The opening sentences recognize the principles set forth in the declaration of American independence as fundamental and everlastingly true in their application to governments among men. Washington's farewell address, Jefferson's wise statesmanship and Lincoln's patriotism and broad philanthropy are enunciated and emphasized. The principle of bimetallism is declared to be the right basis of monetary system. The currency is criticized because destroying the full money power of the silver dollar and fixing the gold standard on the country. The party pledges itself to seek its repeal. The platform favors an income tax, election of senators by direct vote of people, and the maintenance and extension of the merit system.

Combining trusts and monopolies are denounced as unjust, unlawful and oppressive and laws are demanded for their destruction. The Monroe doctrine is reiterated and adherence demanded thereto. Ownership of lands by aliens is denounced. Principles of direct legislation are favored. Liberal pensions recommended for deserving soldiers, their widows and orphans, but the present administration of the pension laws is condemned. Sympathy is extended to the South African republics. Porto Rican tariff bill is denounced and imperialism entirely opposed to our republican form of government. Demand for repeal of war revenue law. Admission to the union of Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma as states is favored. Demand made that promises made to Cuba be fulfilled in every particular. Government aid is urged in reclaiming the arid lands of the country. A sentiment is expressed in favor of the public ownership and operation of public utilities. Peace is declared to be the virtue of civilization and war is its crime. The expansion of our commerce in the interests of American labor is favored and the importation of Asiatic laborers in competition with American labor is denounced. The platform in closing says: "The silver republican party of the United States in the foregoing principles seeks to perpetuate the spirit and to adhere to the teachings of Abraham Lincoln."
